POLICE INVESTIGATE SECOND CAMPAIGN ASSAULT

A Carlsbad citizen reported to police this morning that he was assaulted while trying to prevent people from removing "Yes on 8" campaign signs.

The male victim was jogging at 10 a.m. in the area of Aviara Parkway and Cormorant Drive when he saw two adult males removing signs. When the victim confronted the suspects, one of the suspects pulled the victim's hat and eyeglasses off, and then smashed the eyeglasses on the ground. The suspect's dog then bit the victim in the upper leg area causing four deep puncture wounds.

The suspect, possibly named "Dave," ran away from the scene and is described as a white male in his late 30s or early 40s, last seen wearing shorts and a polo shirt. His dog is described as large, and black and tan in color. The companion was also described as a white male in his late 30s or early 40s with a medium-sized dog, black and brown in color.

Anyone who may have witnessed the incident or who has suspect information is asked to call Carlsbad Police Department at 760-931-2197.
